OPPORTUNITIES FOR BUSINESS

We will arrange a complete process of issuing and offering securities on the stock exchange for your company.

Stock Issuance

Initial and secondary public offerings are available to joint-stock companies.

This is one of the most effective ways to raise capital. It is based on the sale of business shares to a wide range of investors - citizens and businesses.

- The Company receives funds and should not pay interest for them as for a loan in a bank.
- Money is attracted indefinitely.
- The owner or management retains the controlling interest and rights to all management decisions.
- The business obtains market value. Corporate events begin affecting the price of stocks. In case of high demand, securities become more expensive and bring income.
- Large shareholders can quickly increase their shareholdings or sell their stocks in the open market in a profitable way. The company becomes more famous and prestigious.

Bond Issuance

The service is available for JSCs and LLPs.

Bonds are debt securities. They allow you to raise funds from investors for a specified period.

The company undertakes to pay investors coupon on a regular basis and return the principal upon maturity.

- It is possible to raise funds on the stock market at more favorable rates than from a bank.
- A single bond is typically inexpensive. It is possible to create a high public demand and quickly raise the necessary amount of funds.
- Funds can be raised without collateral.
- Companies gain access to a wide range of investors and the opportunity for phased financing over long terms.
- Bond issues can attract the attention of rating agencies. A high-quality credit rating increases a company's credibility for partners, investors, and clients.
